

FDA & YOU

A world of information at your fingertips....

News for Health Educators and Students

Our mission is to inform and encourage health educators and students to learn about the latest FDA medical product and health news by publishing articles that are timely, interesting and relevant.

What is FDA & YOU?

FDA & YOU is an educational newsletter for secondary schools published three times a year by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA). The newsletter addresses issues of food safety and nutrition, drugs, biologics, medical devices, and veterinary medicine. The contents of FDA & YOU may be freely reproduced.
